LOCAL HISTORY AND THE INTERNET

TUTOR NOTES

Session objectives

1. By the end of the module delegates will have an understanding of the importance of producing local history materials.

2. By the end of the module delegates will be able to plan a website on a local history project.

3. By the end of the module delegates will be provided with examples of possible local history projects.

Session overview

	Time allocation	Activity	Resources
Introduction	5 minutes	Before you start setting up your own website you will need some basic information about using Dreamweaver and Photoshop software. Delegates will also be introduced to the idea of creating online materials on local history.	Delegates will be provided with handouts
Development	35	Delegates will be shown how to use:	Delegates will be provided minutes	Dreamweaver: This will include choosing page-size, fonts, colours, URL links, organizing of website, etc.	with access to Dreamweaver and Photoshop.

		Photoshop: This will include scanning, cropping, resolution, collecting images from the web, etc.
		Delegates will be given access to Dreamweaver and Photoshop software in order that they can create the start of a local history website.
Conclusion	10 minutes	Delegates will show the start of their local history website. Problems using Dreamweaver and Photoshop highlighted by the workshop session will be discussed. Attempts will be made to solve these problems.

Equipment and software required

- PCs, access to the internet.

Tutors Guide to training Resource

1. Tutorial (20 minutes)

Delegates will be shown how to use:

Dreamweaver: This will include choosing page-size, fonts, colours, URL links, organizing of website, etc.

Photoshop: This will include scanning, cropping, resolution, collecting images from the web, etc.

3. Delegates Task: Creating a local history website (15 minutes)

Delegates will be given access to Dreamweaver and Photoshop software in order that they can create the start of a local history website.

Conclusion

Delegates will show the start of their local history website. Problems using Dreamweaver and Photoshop highlighted by the workshop session will be discussed. Attempts will be made to solve these problems.